The Big Leagues Have Their Eyes on the El Paso Ball Players

TWO OF THE FIGHTERS WHO WILL APPEAR IN JUAREZ ARENA ON SUNDAY

Gage and Thorpe Are Supposed to Be Well Matched For Their Fight.

All is set and everything in readiness for the championship lightweight battle to be staged at the Junez arena Sunday afternoon between "Fighting" Thorpe, of Kansas City, and Frankie Gage, of Los Angeles.

Gage wound up his boxing Friday afternoon, while Thorpe, after four fast wounds with "Lefty" Floyd, finshed his work, preparatory to the context. Both principals limbered up Saturday afternoon, with long walks, and only light work was done in each camp. That the bout is attracting considerable interest in the southwest is evidenced by the number of telegrams which are being received daily by the promoters, challenging the winner of the battle. Dick Hyland and Bobby Waugh are anxious to come here, and the winner of the Sunday fight in Juarca.

It is conceded that Gage has the advantage in the heavy punching line, tipping the scales slightly on that end. His rusgedness and ability to connect accurately are counted as his muln assets against Thorpe. It is the opinion that Gage was holding back in his quarters as the unmarred record which the little Californian can boast of holds up the conviction of the Tage supporters that he has never cut loose in his quarters. Both Frankie and his brother. Charlle Gage, are confidently expected to win the fight, in which case they would continue to the eastern clubs, or remain in El Paso to meet either Wangh or Hyland on Labor day. Thorpe has all the necessary qualities of the clever boxer. He is faster than Gage and hits snappler and burder. Wangh or Hyland on Labor day. Thorpe has all the necessary qualities of the clever boxer rather than faster which his hands and arms indicate the clever boxer rather than Hyland on the safe of the safe for his opponent, and his lightning movements with his hands and arms indicate the clever boxer rather than the sive and take puncher.

Saturday night Thorpe ruled a slight favorite in the betting, and a flood of Rapsas City money, it is said, will make him a favorite at the ringside by a marrin of 10 to 8. Thorpe has never been defeated, although he has met several of the cleverest men in the light division. Prince Howard, manager for Thorpe, stated Saturday morning: "Gage's style of boxing is made to order for Thorpe, because of the boting

ARRANGING MATCH FOR FRANK FOWSER

A. O. Ross Willing to Pit Him Agnicat
Any Welter Who Can be Secured by Juarez Management.

Pavorably impressed with the recent showing of his protege in the Juarez arona, A. O. Ross, an El Paso theatrical manager, is making endeavors to secure a match for Frankle Fowser, the local walterweight, in order to get a definite line on the abilities of Fowser.

Mr. Ross bas informed the matchmaker of the Junez Athletic club that he will condition Fowser for a battle with any welter in the world. It is the intention of Boss to determine whether the El Paso scrapper has the natural ability necessary to become a champion or not, and, if so, Fowser will be taken east to battle with the top-notchers.

"I was a spectator at both bouts in which Fowser participated in Juarez," said Ross. "He impressed me as one of the most natural fighters I have ever seen, and I am willing to match him with any fighter scaling 142 for a bout of 12 or 15 rounds' duration."

Ross has had former experience as a promotor an, manager, Jos Herrick, the clever Chicago welterweight, has been retained by Ross in the capacity of instructor to Fowser, Joe having
